One-Day Workshop with Victor Beltran

Saturday, May 15, 2021, NEW LOCATION –

Andrew Carnegie Free Library & Music Hall – CARNEGIE, PA

Join in on a day of “Introduction to the World of Sketching”

Victor Beltran, is an accomplished artist, architect and art teacher. He has won numerous awards and has exhibited in the US, including at the Carnegie Museum of Art in Pittsburgh, and Mexico, Peru, Ecuador, the Peruvian Embassy Gallery and Brazil.

A native of Lima, Peru, Victor has more than 45 years of experience in perfecting his techniques and skills in architecture, illustration and watercolor. Victor is a renowned watercolorist and teacher, and past Vice-President of the Pittsburgh Watercolor Society.

This full-day workshop will focus on urban, outdoor, sketching techniques and practices within the neighborhood around the Andrew Carnegie Free Library & Music Hall and the down town area. Participants will learn and apply sketching techniques, as Victor explains and demonstrates the use of different pens, pencils, papers, inks and watercolors to develop sketching techniques and skills. He will have sketchbooks on hand for viewing and illustration. This workshop will be highly motivational, engaging, while allowing time for participants to practice and obtain constructive feedback.

Participants in this workshop will:
Develop skills to approach a variety of common urban sketching subjects. Learn basic urban sketching techniques in pencil, ink and watercolor. Develop confidence and enjoyment in on-location sketching. Create sketches using skillful techniques and a variety of methods.

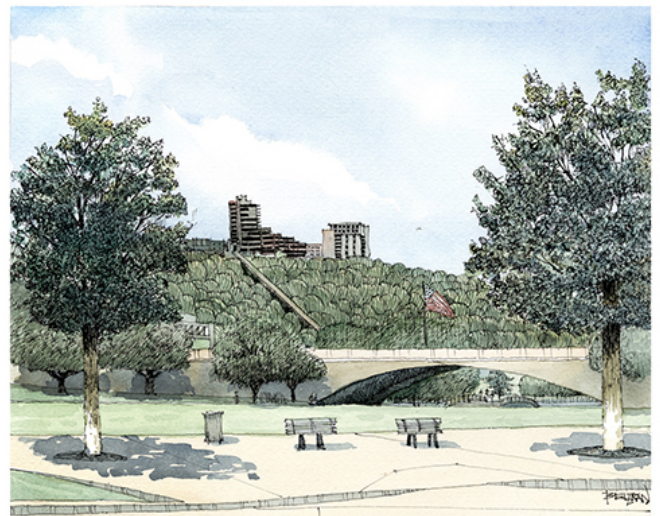

This workshop is for all levels.
