

Painting Animals with YELENA LAMM (water based media)

Saturday, June 11, 2022; 9:00 A.M. to 4:00 P.M.

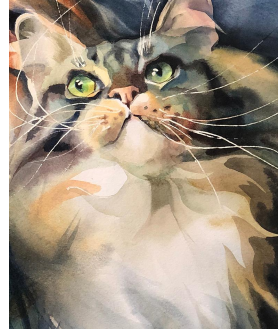

In partnership with NORTH HILLS ART CENTER

Pittsburgh Watercolor Society is delighted to present a Saturday workshop with Yelena Lamm. Born in St. Petersburg, Russia, Yelena received her formal art training from the N.K. Roerich fine arts school. She has been residing in Pittsburgh, PA, since 1995. Yelena paints a variety of subject matter in acrylic, oil, and watercolor, and is the recipient of numerous awards in those media from entities including Oil Painters of America (OAP), National Acrylic and Oil Painters of America (NAOP), Westmoreland Art Nationals, and Pittsburgh Watercolor Society. More of her works and a full list of her exhibitions and awards can be viewed at <https://www.yelenalamm.com>

Yelena Lamm paints lively and colorful portraits of pets and animals in a manner that reveals her subjects' distinct characteristics and personalities.

During the workshop, Yelena may describe her technical process of painting animal portraits in different media, but the focus of this workshop will be watercolor. Participants can work in any form of water media but should have a basic familiarity with their medium of choice. A more detailed description of the course and the supplies list will be available on the Pittsburgh Watercolor Society website when registration opens on March 7, 2022.
